

YOUR GUIDE TO EVERYTHING LAS VEGAS

lasvegas

MAGAZINE ONCE A WEEKLY

FEBRUARY 9, 2014

Titanic

The Artifact Exhibition

depths

StripSteak
Michael Mina Knows Meat

RockTellz & CockTails
The Stories Behind the Songs

Soul2Soul
Country Music's Sweethearts

Such a Lovely View

Italian cuisine just in time for Valentine's Day

With Trevi's fabulous fountainside location inside The Forum Shops at Caesars, Italy seems just a step away. Choose a table on the expansive patio or sip inside for a quieter meal in the dining room, which is open to the patio, giving great views of the Fountain of the Gods, or head upstairs to the mezzanine.

You'll want to start with a nice appetizer and a salad, and the caprese alla Trevi surely satisfies. Generous slices of buffalo mozzarella and tomato are scattered with pine nuts and pesto and drizzled with balsamic. Another standout to start: the crunchy fritto misto, popping together shrimp, scallops, vegetables and calamari, tossed with a lemon aioli. An antipasti platter highlights smoked prosciutto.

The pasta selection aims to please. A lovely ravioli chock full of cheese makes the perfect bed for a covering of tangy, creamy tomato vodka sauce. Rigatoni Bolognese piles the meat-filled sauce over pasta. Shrimp amatriciana features large grilled crustaceans with a smoky touch, resting around a mound of marinara-laden spaghetti. And that same spaghetti can host two huge meatballs.

Not to be missed is Trevi's signature dish, the deep-dish lasagna pizza, which layers ricotta, mozzarella, pomodoro sauce and rich Italian sausage. If you're feeling decadent, indulge in one of Trevi's deliziosi desserts, such as the airy, light tiramisu or the chilly, eye-fooling spaghetti ice. —Nino King

AT A GLANCE

Trevi

► For Valentine's Day, Trevi serves up a special $70 "That's Amore" prix fixe menu including an appetizer of Caesar salad or field greens mixed with tomatoes and Italian crostini, a main course of lasagna, penne diavolo or fettuccine al pesto and a dessert of spaghetti ice gelato.

► Throughout the month of February, Trevi is also offering a special $10 linguine pomodoro with chicken special.

► Trevi's Bellini cocktail is a mix of peach nectar, sparkling wine, light rum and peach puree.

The Forum Shops at Caesars
11 a.m.-11 p.m. Sun-Thurs., 11 a.m.- midnight Fri.-Sat. 702.735.4663